For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the, Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the Digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution enfeebled by disease or broken down by the excess of youth, to the pristing vigor and strength.

shy, and restores the Constitution threshed to disease or broken down by the excess of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength.

For the diseases of females it is peculiarly applicable, and wherever it has become known, is regularly prescribed with the happiest effects. It invigorates the weak and debilitated, and imparts clasticity to the wern out frame, clears the skin, and leaves the patient frosh and healthy; a single bottle of this inestimable remedy is worth all the so-called Sarsaparillas in existence.

The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, as the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians, and public men, well known to the community, all add their testimony to the wonderful effects of this Great Blood Purifier.

If y to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicines, "Carter's Spanish Mixture."

Neuralgia, Rheumatism, S. re'ula, Eruptions of the Skin, Liver Disease, Fevers, Uleers, O d Sores, Affection of the Kidneys, Diseases of the Throat, Female Complaints, Pains and Aching of the Bones and Joints, are speedily put to flight by using this iuestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impufities, acts gently and efficiently on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the Digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution enfeebled by disease or broken down by the excess of youth, to its priatine vigor and strength.

For the diseases of remales it is peculiarly applicable, and wherever it has become known, is regularly prescribed with the happiest cheets. It invigorates the weak and debilitated, and imparts classicity to the wern-out frame, clears the skin, and leaves the patient frosh and healthy; a single bottle of this inestimable remedy is worth all the so-called Sarsaparillas in existence.

The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians, and public men, well known to the community, all add their testimony to the wonderful effects of this Great Blood Purifier.

Judgo Leavitt unhesitatingly decided tha the Marshals were justified in resisting the service of the writ in the hands of Layton, and that no more force was used than was nece-sary to overcome the violence of the Sheriff and his assistant. He saw nothing to censure or con Jomn in the conduct of the officers.

He said that whatever prejudices might exist in the community against the act of Congress relative to fugitives, it was the duty of all good cirizens to obey the law, and it was the enforced. This duty, the obligations imposed by the Constit ition, the relations which the States had agreed to sell at the very lowest prices, and he therefore to bear to one another, were most cloquently hopes to receive a liberal share of publi patrenage. dwelt upon and illustrated.

The conclusion of the decision was, that the D puty Marshals be released from the custody of the Sheriff of Clark County.

Thus ends, so far as the decisions of the United States Court are concerned, this exciting case, Calhoun street, two doors north of Dans & Co. which presents the most audacious attempt to a illify the acts of Congress, and trample upon the authority of the Federal Government, that this occurred since the Union was formed. It had the countenance of the Governor of State, Provisions, Pickles, Preserves, and was instigated by his special friends. It was supported and encouraged by the journals in the interest of that official, and of the traitorous party of which he is the cheif conspirator. There is an Arabian story which says that the great Sheik, Hassan Al Som Bodih, was one day visited by his neighbor, Ali Mahamed Wat Chu Kalem, who was desirous of borrowing a tope. But the Sheik was not in a liberal mood, and replied that he was just about to use the tope, for the purpose of tying up a hundred weight of sand-or, as the great Arabian scholar. Ibn Rigm Arol, tells the story, a million grains of barley. But how can you tie up sand with a rope?" asked the astonished Mohamed Wat Chu Kalem, "Oh, friend," reglied the Sheik as he puffed at his pipe, "Allah is great, and we can do queer things with a rope—when we don't 2 ant to lend it?
